We are the music makers,
and we are the dreamers of dreams,
wandering by lone sea-brakers,
and sitting by desolate streams;-
world-losers and world-forsakers,
on whom the pale moon gleams:
yet we are the movers and shakers
of the world forever, it seems.

--Arthur O'Shaughnessy.

to a student whomever he may be . . .

Wendy Hawkinson (Freshman, Caracas, Venezuela)

"I think most people will agree that Stetson is a very friendly school, which I think is important, especially for those of us who have never lived in the states before. I'd rather not cut Stetson down like most people do, because I think wherever one goes one will always tend to cut the school down, some way or another. Anyway, there is no one perfect university anywhere."

Charlie Daniels (Senior)

"Stetson . . . a deep, good breath in a growing person's lifetime . . . How sincerely I agree with a friend's comment on his commencement day: 'You know, Charlie, this is a good school!'"

Rodney W. Morgan (Junior)

"Stetson is small and in that smallness her students have become small with her. She and her students have become petty in their relationship and trivial in their communication. She is suspicious of her students in their youth and they in turn have become untrusting of her direction. She is frustrating in her provincial splendor and lonely in her solitude."

Cindy Fuller (Junior)

"Stetson has atmosphere. Stetson has potential. Stetson needs a boost. She rests in complacency. Stetson is a feeling. Stetson is a mood. Sometimes I wish I hadn't come here."

Cathy Rounds (Sophomore)

"Stetson? Well I feel like in Stetson I am getting what I missed by not going to public high school -- no culture, no thinking, no Dick Gregory and a lot of teeny-bop. If and when I graduate I will have to learn how to readjust to the real world. I have met some really great people and had a few good times, though. I'd tell you more except I have to go get a pass to the girl's room--."

Tim Frazier (Freshman)

"I like it! But it is a paradox. There are a variety of inconsistencies in both the administration and the projected image I received of Stetson before I arrived. Most of all I like the idea of being able to be an individual and not a number."

Leffie M. Carlton, III (Sophomore)

"It's great to learn what to think and not how to think. Knowledge is fine but how about wisdom? Perhaps the student deserves more trust, maybe not, who can tell until it's really given."

Dolly Morehead (Senior)

"Everybody has gripes about Stetson. They'd gripe anywhere they went. It's just that here the opportunity presents itself more often . . . That's school. Sometimes you can't live with it -- but I'll always be grateful I did."

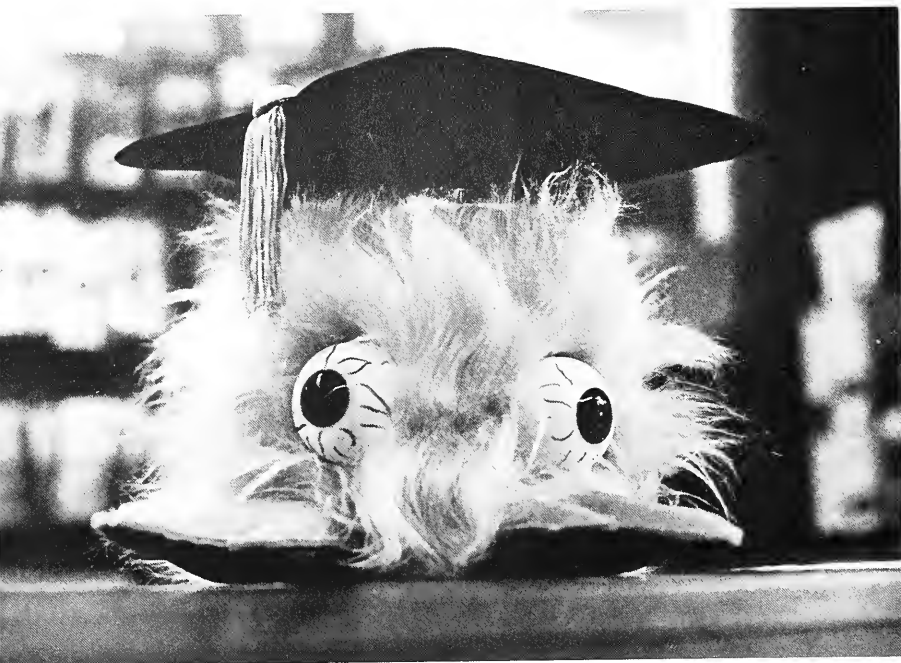

Darrin Berger (Sophomore)

"Stetson to me is a place where I have found my true purpose in life. Explaining in terms of economics, Stetson is a production possibility curve. On one axis you have what you can do, on the other you have what you shouldn't do. It seems that I'm on the axis of what shouldn't be done. Stetson has taught me to be an antagonist. I love you Stetson."

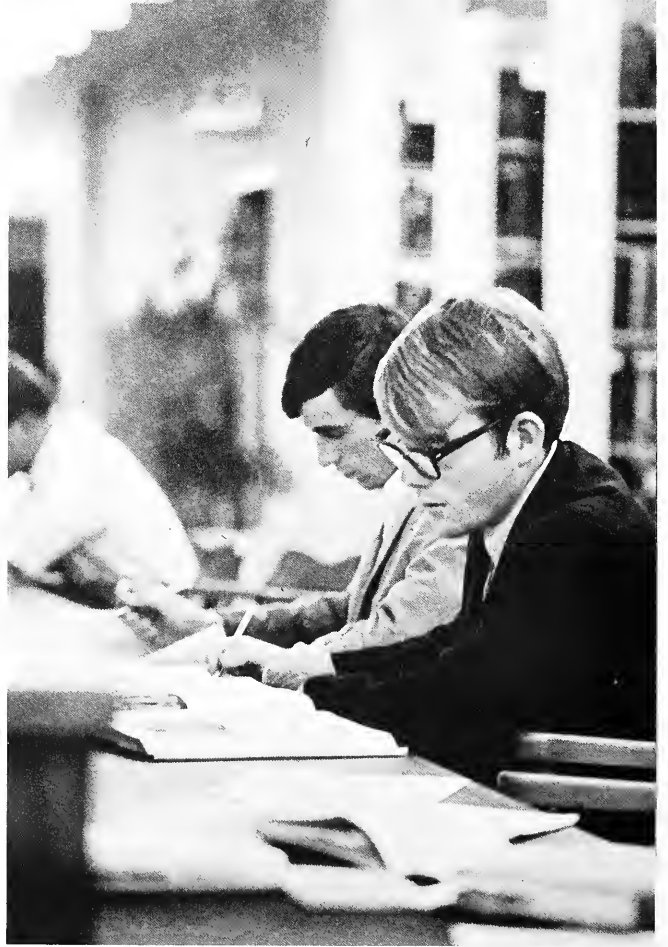

David Emerson (Junior)

"Stetson. Well, it's not too bad in some ways. Some of us are getting good undergraduate educations, but we would anyway. A few good professors. Has usual advantages and disadvantages of a small college. It could be pretty good in the future, if it goes the right way. I don't know; I won't be here."

Although the academic year for the university began in September, for the HATTER as well as for many organizations, the year really began several months earlier. April, 1967, saw the beginning of this year. It began with the preparation and the planning, the choosing and the electing. It began with the Student Government and Publications elections on April 18 and 20, and with them the planning for a new administration, a new senate, a new HATTER, a new year.

On April 26 an annual Stetson tradition, Hatter Holiday was held. The administration, realizing the probability of various outside activities available to Stetson students during the warmer seasons, attempts to alleviate the problems of cutting with Hatter Holiday. Of course it helps, it gives us a day off in DeLeon Springs for general egg tosses, inner-tube races, water football games, and the Mr. and Miss Stetson Contest—events to remember by all the stupid things you could not do at any other time during the year.

It was the end of four years--the beginning of something new. It was the usual time for reflection and looking ahead--but until each of us graduates too, we won't know the meaning of this reflection and looking ahead. As recipient of the Outstanding Senior Awards, this was a special time for Dave Morgan and Darlene Smith. For President Edmunds it was a time for long reflection--for it was his commencement, too.

The official Rush Week began. A few were sure at the beginning; a few weren't sure at the end. It seemed to be a constant party, a terribly long seige of trying to be "natural." It was K - Parties, and Ice Water Teas, smiles and decisions. Then on September 22 the men headed for the Traffic Department; on September 23 the women made a mass exit from the dorm. Great Expectations, and then that feeling of happiness . . . a bond everlasting. And a new force of pledges was available for those never ending "odd jobs".

The Pi Kappas had made an excellent choice . . . To narrow their selections to one would be difficult. But finally, it was announced . . . Miss Rochelle Waters . . . the 1967 Freshman Beauty Queen.

After an absence of a year, October 13th and 14th brought us Greek Week again. The Pi Kapps saw their ninth Greek God in Steve Buchanan and the Zetas their consecutive Greek Goddess in Pat Devell. The traditional torch lighting ceremony was highlighted by classic works of art such as the Pikes rendition of "The Letter". On Friday the Greeks adjourned to the Olympic Arena to watch the Chariot Race --but what was the writing on one of the chariots? That evening the Olympian hosts gathered in Daytona-City of the Sun-for the Greek Week Dance. It was obvious on Saturday that the sun God was not pleased with the revelry and consequently froze those who braved the Atlantic during the beach party.

On October 19, Stetson University students attended the Seekers concert. It was sponsored jointly by Stetson and Rollins, although the Rollins announcer kept secret the fact that Stetson was co-sponsor. After successfully driving a comedian off the stage, the Seekers proved to be a tremendous success.

Despite interviews with judges, a reception, and a tape recording session all twenty contestants made it through to the contest--even those with more important things in their minds. The judges selected Miss Margot Shaul--1968 Miss HATTER.

A goal of $5000 . . . a dance . . . a pancake day . . . a soul show . . . an egg throw . . . a follies . . . a turkey shoot--each played its part in our annual drive for charity. There were collections in the dorms all week and then the day-long seige of Hulley Field to build the booths for the carnival Saturday night. The next week Nan and Dave very proudly announced the result of all our work--the goal had been surpassed by almost $1000--and it was all worth it.

november.

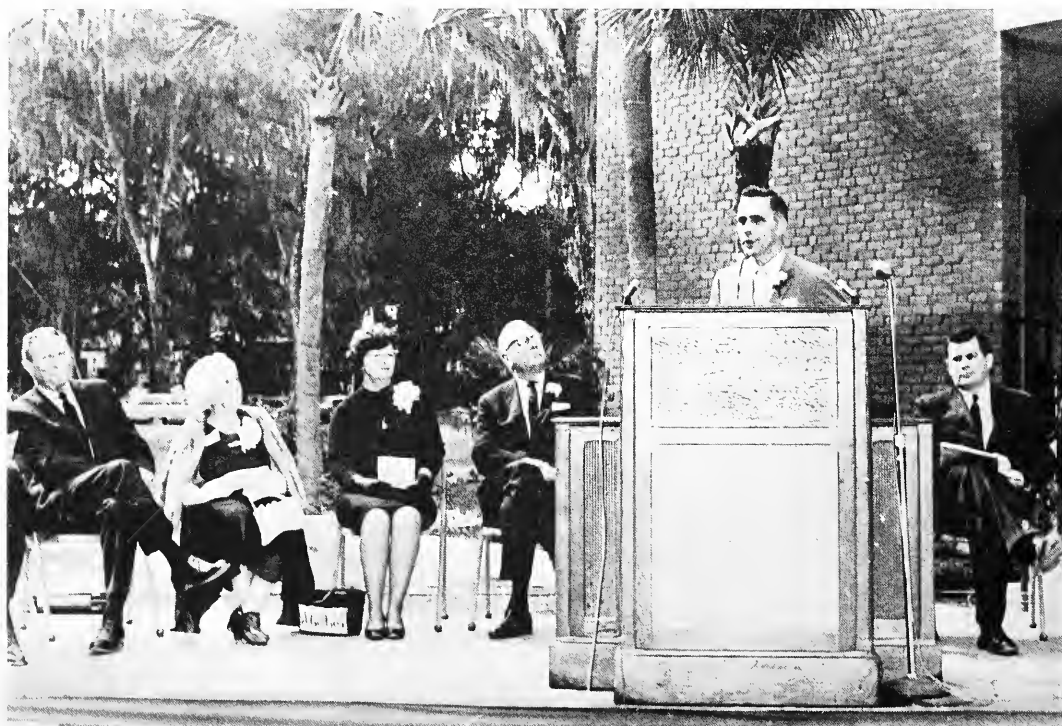

It finally happened--Stetson co-sponsored a concert with Rollins and actually got credit--Dionne Warwick

Another big Stetson weekend . . . we didn't get out of classes Friday afternoon, the concert in Orlando, open houses, a welcome for D.J., and the oldies but goodies, everyone staying dressed for the weekend to give a good impression, the Daytona Plaza Ballroom, no parade this year, we won't mention the soccer game, and a tribute to a great man--J. Ollie Edmunds, Stetson Class of '25.

The science departments were officially welcomed to their new building-Sage Hall, by Mrs. Sage--an important friend of the university, and the many other financial contributors in the construction of the building. Later in the month the Davis family arrived in DeLand to help dedicate the new Building for the School of Business. These two buildings have changed the face of our campus, but in a few years, few will remember Flagler and 3rd floor Elizabeth Hall as the science departments, and that World War II barracks as the Business School, for Sage Hall and Davis Hall have quickly become an integral and lasting part of our campus.

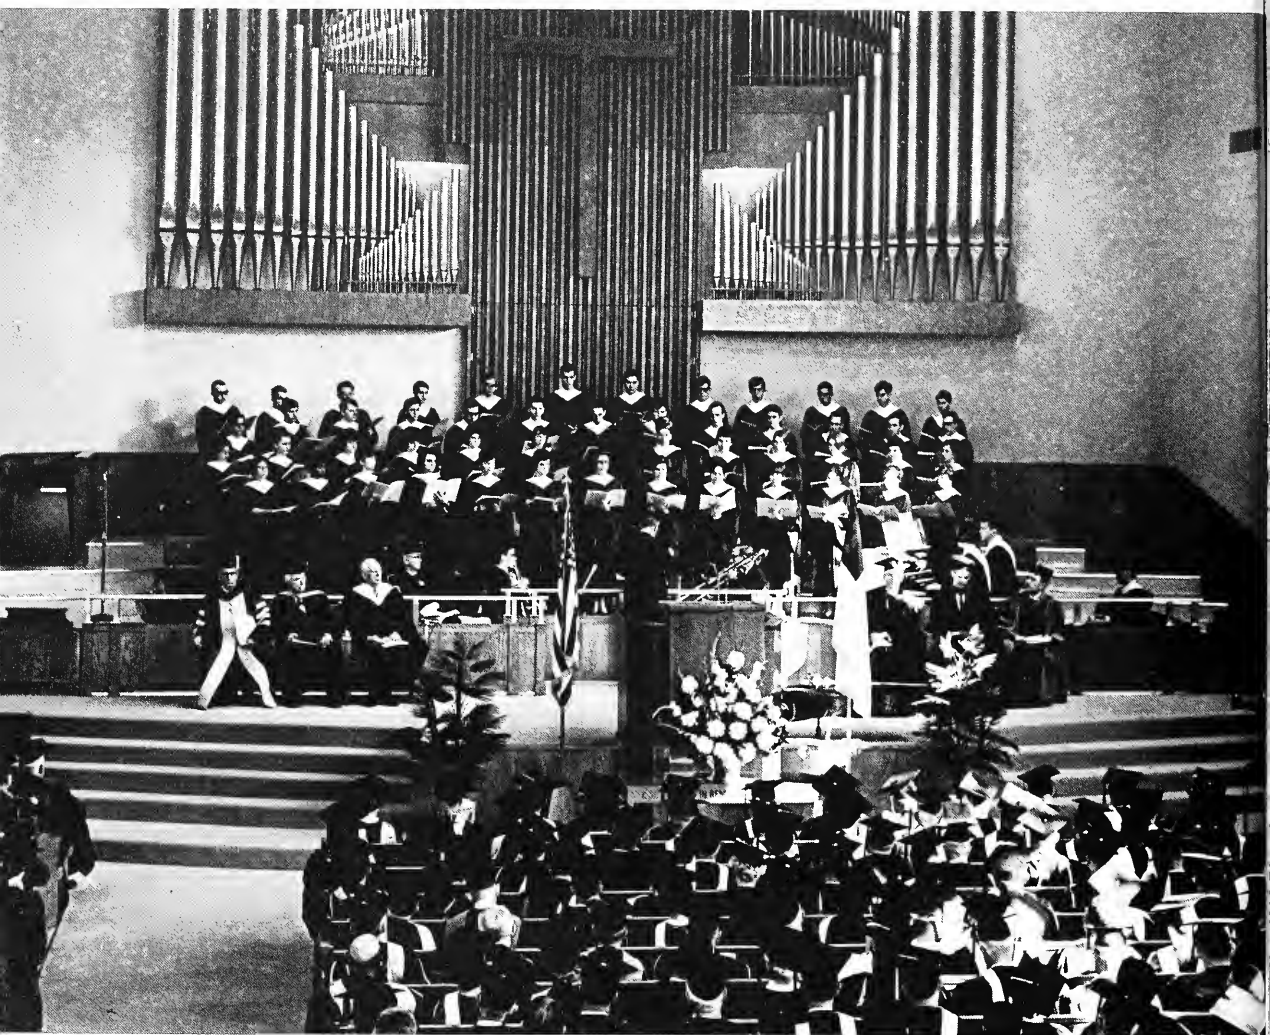

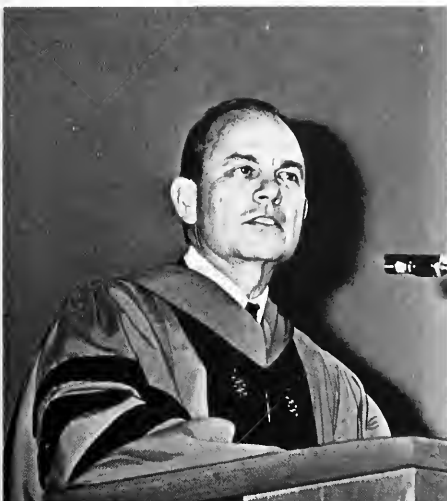

This year the Christmas Parade went by without incident--thanks to a certain fraternity. Then it was time for the parties for the underprivileged children and for the formal Christmas dance---The Snow Ball. Nan Nixon was Snow Princess and Edie Culver was Snow Prince. Finally, the fateful week arrived and everyone more or less made it through--then home for vacation.

January 26, 1968--Stetson University's first formal presidential inauguration. The honor of being Stetson's fifth president was bestowed upon Dr. Paul Francis Geren. The guest speaker was Dr. Samuel H. Miller, Dean of the Harvard Divinity School.

President Geren was graduated CUM LAUDE from Baylor University with a A.B. degree in English and Speech. He received an M. A. degree in Economics and Business Administration from Louisiana State University. He received a second Master's degree and his Ph.D. degree in Economics from Harvard University. He has taught at several American and foreign universities. For two years he served as Deputy Director of the Peace Corps. He has been in the Foreign Service and has served in Syria, India, Jordan, Libby, and the Federation of Rhodesia, and Nyasaland. Among the several books he has published are BURMA DAIRY, NEW VOICES, OLD WORLDS, and CHRISTIANS CONFRONT COMMUNISM.

Stetson University is privileged to welcome Dr. Geren into its community.

dick gregory-appearance
cancelled

In May, 1967, the Student Affairs Committee, composed of Administrators, Faculty members, and student leaders, discussed the subject of "controversial speakers" appearing at Stetson. Mr. Dick Gregory was used as an example. The Stetson Union Board voted in favor of inviting Mr. Gregory to Stetson to speak sometime in the spring, 1968. His appearance would be financed jointly by the S.U.B. and Student Government. The contract was signed in September, 1967, and Mr. Gregory's appearance was announced to the Stetson student body. On February 15, 1968, President Geren called an Executive Council meeting to discuss Mr. Gregory's appearance. This body consisted of Administrators, Faculty, and the Student Government President. No decision was reached, but President Geren stated that he would not interfere in the students' right to invite whomever they wished. On Friday morning, February 16, President Geren met with the board of Trustees and representatives from the Faculty Senate to discuss the rapidly growing problem. After this meeting, President Geren met with the Board of Trustees, at which time the Board requested the students, through President Geren, to cancel Mr. Gregory's speech at Stetson. That afternoon, student leaders met with members of the Faculty and Administration to decide what action should be taken. A decision was reached. The President at the S.U.B. called Mr. Gregory's agent and Mr. Gregory's appearance at Stetson University was cancelled.

parent's weekend

In March, Stetson was inundated with 800 very important guests -- parents. It was their weekend -- a time to meet the new pin-mate, a time to sit in the hallowed halls of 'Liz' Hall, a time to eat a meal at that noted, or rather infamous, cafeteria -- the Commons.

The Follies, a Parents' Weekend tradition, was presented in Elizabeth Hall. Through the Artists and Lecturers Committee, Stover Theatre presented Mr. Sorrell Booke as Socrates in Maxwell Anderson's play, Barefoot in Athens.

The Military Ball was quite a Command Performance. The 98th Army Band entertained with sedate, but excellent music. The 1968 Military Ball Queen, chosen from the company and organizational sponsors, was Terry Frazier. The runners-up were Margot Shaul and Dee Lewis.

A black and white portrait of a woman with dark, wavy hair pulled back. She is wearing a textured, button-up cardigan over a dark top. She has a slight smile and is looking towards the camera. The background is dark and out of focus.

A black and white photograph of a woman standing on a set of brick steps. She is wearing a white short-sleeved button-down shirt tucked into a dark, knee-length skirt. She is holding a stack of papers or books under her left arm and has her right hand on her hip. She is smiling broadly, looking upwards and to the left. She is wearing dark, lace-up shoes. The background shows a brick wall on the left and some foliage on the right.

DR. J. OLLIE EDMUNDS
Chancellor

My business is the University's business.

JOHN E. JOHNS
Business Manager

College years involve many decisions to be made and crises to be met. We hope that each student who comes to our center will not only receive assistance in meeting his immediate problem but also develop his personal resources so that he can be more adequate for future problems.

GEORGE W. HOOD
Director of Counseling Services

The University Motto Pro Deo Et Veritate proclaims that whatever else higher education is or does it is a quest for values and meaning which provide adequate fulfillment for all our human capacities.

RAY V. SOWERS

Dean of the College of Liberal Arts

After thirteen years of serving as Dean of the College of Law, Dean Sebring announced his retirement in order to pursue writing and studies. He will also continue teaching on a limited basis.

HAROLD LEON SEBRING

Dean of the College of Law

My most important duty is counseling with students, from Liberal Arts College as well as the School of Business Administration, to help them achieve the qualifications for service.

EDWARD C. FURLONG JR.
Dean of the School of Business Administration

My line is Music, Musicians, and Musicianship.
PAUL T. LANGSTON
Dean of the School of Music

My business is girls, . . . and I like my business.
ETTER TURNER
 Dean of Women

The Dean of Men is responsible for the general welfare of all men on the campus.

BILL R. BAGGETT
 Dean of Men

My job? . . . just to keep the records straight.
BARBARA ROWE
 Registrar

The Admissions Officer is responsible for interpreting Stetson's programs and curricula to her constituency - students, guidance counselors, parents, etc. It is his responsibility not only to promote Stetson, but to carefully study applicants, in light of his experience with enrolled students, so that the admissions decision might be best for all concerned.

GARY A. MEADOWS
 Director of Admissions.

"This is my world! Within these narrow walls, I own a princely service."

Paul Hamilton Hayne, My Study

This Thought could have been expressed by any member of the Stetson Community. And so, come, let us read together!

CHARLOTTE A. SMITH
Librarian

. . . the puzzling problem of stretching scarce resources among competing and compelling demands and needs . . .

H. GRAVES EDMUNDSON
Comptroller

A Friend in need - a friend indeed — one for the women to see with regards to permissions and housing.

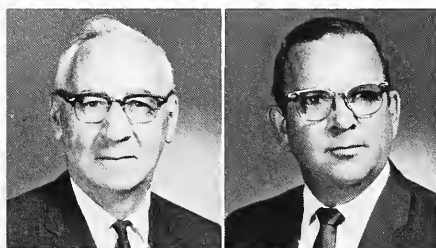

MARY EDNA PARKER
Assistant Dean of Women

PROTEST AND PROGRESS

It may shock some Hippies to learn that living in disregard of conventions while pursuing art and intellectualism is older than antimacassars. Hippies even look like old-time Bohemians.

Also, there's nothing unrespectable about protest. Plato taught, in the 5th Century, B.C., that man can move toward the highest good by constant questioning of assumptions. His Republic, a plan for a new social order, was followed a thousand years later by St. Augustine's City of God . . . and in another thousand years by Sir Thomas More's Utopia.

The Great Seal of the United States proclaims a New Order of the Ages, Novus Ordo Seclorum. No sooner was the Great Experiment launched, than little experiments—agrarian communal colonies—sprouted from Texas to Massachusetts. These, in time, petered out.

What changes the social order most radically is not revolt against society, but practical invention—moveable type, steam engines, electric light, automobiles, computers . . . the corporation, advertising, credit buying. Research and development are accelerating changes.

Both protest and progress stem from discontent with things as they are. But progress happens—undramatically—the result of practical improvements. That's why your world will see a New Social Order.

hatter philosophy

I have been thinking for the past three weeks about what to put in these pages and I still don't know. I'm going to start by repeating what I have been saying all year long, the yearbook this year is really different. Well by now you have seen most of it and I am sure you have formulated an opinion. I hope that you like it. I hope that you have found yourself in it somewhere, in a picture, a line of copy, or maybe just in a mood, and that somehow we have succeeded in capturing the Stetson that is you. If for some reason you don't like part of it, I hope that you at least appreciate the efforts we put into it and that sometimes it is very hard to capture you, your moods, your actions.

I left myself two pages hoping that by this time I would be able to write flowing epistles on the changes in the HATTER and the philosophies behind it (how is that for vocabulary coming from me), or a blow by blow account of how the book was put together, or my thoughts on the art of yearbook production, but the changes somehow seem to need no explanation, what happened here in the office seems so unimportant except to those who were here and know it already, and my comments on the art of yearbook production now could never be printed.

There are a few things, however, that I do want to say. I wish I could name every person that I want to thank for their help but I would need more than two pages to do that. I want to thank those who just dropped by and stopped to chat and waste some time with us for a few moments, those of you who just asked "How is the HATTER coming" and give us the needed inspirations when things were going bad. I want to thank Dr. Morris for being such a wonderful person and for keeping us going some of the times (we were deathly afraid to fall on her black list), Mrs. Floy Blane and all the people at Alabama Engraving who make the book a reality and Dean Turner for being there when we needed her most. And I want to thank the Staff. If you turn to pages 128 to 131 you will see their names and their pictures. Without each and everyone of them the task of putting out the 1968 HATTER would not have been possible. And then there are the many who dropped by and worked when they could, even those who said "I did not work for Mary P. and I did not work for D.J. and I am not going to work for you." (he did), well enough of this to all of you, just thank you.

Only one thing in the 1968 HATTER seems to need explanation--the Etter Turner, J. Ollie Edmunds Outstanding Senior Awards. The recipients of these awards were chosen by a joint administration-student committee, they recognize both men and women, they take into accounts all facets of student achievements. They were given to those seniors who in the opinion of the committee, have provided outstanding leadership, character, but above all unselfish service to the Stetson community. They were given with the hope that they will become a part of our tradition and that they will be looked to as one of our highest awards.

Looking back it seems as if it was yesterday that I arrived here at Stetson and saw the sign put up by Joanne Fields asking for anyone that wanted to work for the 1964 HATTER. It was then that it all started and as you read these pages it will all have been over. It was an interesting time, sometimes frustrating, sometimes all-demanding, but most of all it was a time full of faces that turned to smiles and then turned to friends.
